

Code of Conduct

To make sure everyone has a safe, fun, and positive experience, all Jr. Clippers campers must follow these simple rules:

---

1. Show Respect

- Listen to coaches, staff, and teammates.
  - Be kind—no bullying, teasing, or name-calling.
  - Treat everyone the way you want to be treated.

2. Be a Good Teammate

- Encourage others and include everyone.
  - Share the ball—it's not about being the star.
  - Play fair and follow the rules.

3. Try Your Best

- Hustle in drills and games.
  - It's okay to make mistakes—just keep trying!
  - Be coachable and willing to learn.

4. Be Safe

- Keep hands and feet to yourself.
  - No rough play or dangerous behavior.
  - Follow all safety rules from staff.

5. Have a Positive Attitude

- Bring energy, effort, and enthusiasm.
- Win or lose, show good sportsmanship.
- Keep complaints and negativity off the court. If you're feeling frustrated, take a break or talk to a coach.

6. Stay On Task

- Stay with your group.
- Don't leave the court without permission.
- Use breaks responsibly (water, bathroom, etc.).

7. Respect the Space

- Take care of equipment and the facility.
- Clean up after yourself.
- No damaging property—on purpose or by goofing off.

Consequences if Rules Are Broken:

- Verbal Warning
- Loss of Game or Activity Time
- Parent Contact
- Removal from Camp (for serious or repeated behavior)

By attending camp, all players agree to follow this Code of Conduct. Let's work together to make this the best basketball camp experience for everyone!
